

Warm your Senses: Community Café Special Holiday Concert

The December Community Café concert is a holiday special, featuring two local groups that specialize in holiday performances.

The TechTones Holiday Choir is known for its entertaining variety of holiday songs, from traditional carol medleys to jazzy or novelty numbers, including a few rich a cappella selections. The approximately 20-member choir has performed every year for the past 21 years at Texas Instruments departmental holiday parties and often performs at the Plano Dickens Festival and Richardson Santa's Village.

Heart of Dallas Chorus is a 4-part a cappella ladies chorus. The group has been entertaining audiences around the metroplex with beautiful harmonies for the last ten years. Singing primarily in the barbershop style, they particularly enjoy the holidays, as well as singing valentines around Valentine's Day, making people blush and cry publicly. They are actively recruiting for membership.

Both groups are under the direction of Sandy Hanne.

A donation of $10 per person is requested. To encourage family participation, the donation for youth (under 14) is $5 per person, and it's free for pre-schoolers and younger. As usual, free childcare is available. Refreshments and snacks are also available at a nominal charge.
