

NTAUUS Recognition Awards are Due Again - Nominate one of our hardworking, deserving members!

NTAUUS is the North Texas Association of Unitarian Universalists Societies. It assists, through programming, training and grants, the 13 UU congregations in North Texas.

Last year, Dick Hildenbrand, received a Recognition Award for his work with our Congregation and beyond.

Special Service in the Park November 13th, 10:30 am. New Location! Oak Point Nature Preserve Pavilion

On Sunday, November 13th, Brother Chi Sing (www.AwakeningHeart.org) will lead a very special, meditative Service in the Park. We will take advantage of the lovely surroundings to practice some walking meditation. It will be an intergenerational service, so children will stay with their parents.

Location: Oak Point Park and Nature Preserve, 5901 Los Rios Blvd, Plano, Texas. Directions: From Community UU Church, turn right on Parker, then right (north) on Jupiter. Pass the intersection with Spring Creek, then take the next right onto Los Rios. Take the first right to reach the parking lot, and look for the pavilion between the parking lot and the lake.

The location does have nearby restrooms and a water fountain. Sai Baba has invited us back to the church for lunch immediately following the service.
