

Minds, Machines and Free Will in the 20th Century

- In what sense might machines have Free Will?
- Do machines have a capacity for thought?
- What is Logical Atomism? What is Logical Positivism?

If you are interested in Whitehead, Russell or Wittgenstein – come discuss Prof. Jay Dowling’s perspective on these philosophers and the “thinking machines” of the 20th century.

Jay Dowling is a professor at UTD and teaches psychology and philosophy. This class begins Thursday, Sept. 23, and will meet from 7:00 – 9:00 pm for two sessions at Community UU Church. See the website for details www.communityuuchurch.org
