OUR VISION

We will become a dynamic and nurturing religious community that celebrates our human diversity, supports lifelong spiritual growth, and acts for compassion and justice in the larger community.

It's That Time Again

As 2019 winds down, and we look ahead to all that 2020 may bring, it's only natural to reflect on what changes, milestones, and meaningful moments have happened in our lives. December 31 closes out not just the year, but an entire decade. For many of us, time is flying- 2010 or even the year 2000 seem as close as 2018.

What's more UU than self-reflection and introspection? Even if you're not on the shores of Walden Pond, the year's end invites some contemplation. Now's when you might think about transitions of the past year: moving to a new home, starting a new job; graduations and first days of school. Transitions in your circle: perhaps your family welcomed a new member via birth, marriage, adoption, or friendship; perhaps you had to make some hard family decisions or bid farewell to a loved one this year. Change is inevitable and oftentimes bittersweet.

I've found there are generally two kinds of people when it comes to welcoming the new year: those who are eager to flip that calendar page, discard the previous year's excess baggage, and forge ahead with hope and optimism for better things to come, and those for whom it's just another turn of time's wheel, a day no different from any other. Sound familiar? Each approach has its merits; if you've been staunchly in one camp for a while, maybe consider taking a cue from the other.

Those of us who grin and bear the excitement and clamor of celebrations with some weariness and cynicism might try letting ourselves get caught up in the fervor for change with some fresh ideas- if not resolutions or goals, at the very least a fun project or two. And for the new year's cheerleaders enthusiastically welcoming a reset and restart, it's worth noting that any time during the year, any day at all, could be the first day of a brand-new start.

Here's to peace, love, and hope for all of us in 2020! Alyssa Church

Highlights of December, 2019 meeting.

Final installation of digital roadside pulpit sign, had to have final permits resolved before installation.

Service auction proceeds were 10K. New software was a big success.

Circle Suppers is a great way to get to know other folks in the church in a smaller group setting. On the 2nd Saturday of each month we gather at the home of one or more members for dinner. The host makes the main dish and each guest brings a side dish. If you haven't previously attended Circle Suppers you may apply now to receive monthly email invitations. Just send an email to CircleSuppers@CommunityUUchurch.org and give your name (or names) and address and phone number and we'll send you monthly invites.

Our Share The Plate offering for January is the Community Harvest Garden. Share the Plate - 2020 begins Community Harvest Garden's 14th year and we're aiming to make it a lucky one! Over the past 13 years we have donated 17,000 pounds of fresh, organic produce to local food pantries, and we've learned a lot along the way. Plants aren't the only thing that grows in a garden – so do communities of beneficial soil microbes, a sense of community between the gardeners and non-profit partners, and gardening knowledge. We are grateful for your support through the January 26th Share the Plate Offering which will allow us to provide fellowships to gardeners in need and maintain the supplies that keep our plots producing. Thank you!

President's Column

Happy New Year!

January 1st is a day that we celebrate as we look forward to a new year, a blank slate upon which to write. It officially closes the holiday season that starts with Thanksgiving, and includes Christmas, Yuletide, Hanukkah, Chalice, Kwanzaa, Bodhi, and others too numerous to mention (Festivus, anyone?).

It's no coincidence that every culture and religion has celebrations and observances during this time of the year. Around the world, the end of the harvest and the shortening of days signals a time of reflection, of giving thanks and of looking forward to the next cycle of planting, growth and harvest.

This is an appropriate analogy for the life of our church, too. 2019 was a year of completion, of assessment and of planting seeds for growth. As we begin 2020, we will be welcoming our new Contract Minister, Kristen Cervantes, to our pulpit and starting the process of forming a search committee and doing the work necessary to find a settled minister. The search is also underway for a new Director of Religious education and a Membership Coordinator.

Through it all the changes of the past year, and those we will see in 2020, we have one constant: a dedicated group of members, friends, and visitors who make up our welcoming community.

I'm looking forward to seeing who we will welcome into our community in the coming year and the positive changes ahead!

Blessings, Kimberly Schramm

Have you been "feeding" your Guest At Your Table box since our donations to UU Service Committee began in early November? If you do not have one of these boxes, you can still pick one up along with a folder in the sanctuary on the children's tables at the back of the sanctuary or in the Church foyer by the name tags. We will be asking folks to place coins/bills in their boxes from now into January 2020. When you bring your donations back to Church, please make them in a check to UUSC (Unitarian Universalist Service Committee) with a memo for Guest At Your Table. In January we will collect any donations given to me, Anne Smith, or my husband Chet Smith and we'll mail them to the UUSC office. Several folks in past years have combined their donations to reach $125 as the UUSC will match that amount with their funds. Thanks! Anne

Simple Living Chalice Circle

The next meeting will be Saturday morning January 11 at 11am. Theme/topic – Learning together to live deliberately.

Facilitator Ona Tannehill at Email simpleliving@communityuuchurch.org.

Women's Fellowship Breakfast.

To all the women of the Church: We're having a fellowship breakfast gathering of all the women of the Church on Saturday, January 18 at Poor Richard's Café, 2442 K Ave. in Plano, starting at 8:30-9am and ending around 9:30-10am.

Come join us for a morning of good food and fellowship to meet other women in the church. For more information, questions and to RSVP, contact Vicki Verinder at membcom-chair@communityuuchurch.org

The Men's Fellowship

Breakfast is Saturday, January 18, 8:30am at Poor Richard's Cafe, 2442 K Avenue, Plano, TX 75074. If you plan to attend, please let Tom Bieg know by 6pm Friday, January 17.

Friday Flix. Snack, beverages and conversation at 6:30pm with the movie starting at 7pm in Founders Hall.

January 10 - "Cave of Forgotten Dreams." In this documentary, filmmaker Werner Herzog and a small crew are given a rare chance to film inside France's Chauvet Cave, where the walls are covered with the world's oldest surviving paintings. To preserve the art, people are allowed to enter the site for only two weeks a year. Examining the 30,000-year-old drawings, Herzog discusses how the artwork represents humanity's earliest dreams with scientists and art scholars conducting research at Chauvet.

January 24 - "Where'd You Go, Bernadette?" Starring: Cate Blanchett. Former architect Bernadette Fox seems to have it all -- a beautiful home in Seattle, a successful and loving husband, and a brilliant teenage daughter who's about to attend boarding school. When Bernadette suddenly disappears without a trace, her concerned family sets off on an exciting adventure to solve the mystery of where she might have gone.

Save the date!! Ready for some relaxation, time to reflect and reboot! Join us for our Annual Women's Alliance Retreat. Our retreat will be held on April 3, 4 and 5, 2020 in Glen Rose, TX. More details to follow.

Literary Ladies Book Club

Upcoming Meeting. Women members and friends of Community UU Church are welcome to join us on the third Tuesday of the month from 7 – 9pm.

Date: January 21

Location: Deb Bliss' home. Contact Deb by Jan. 17th if you plan to attend.

Selection: Where the Crawdad Sings by Delia Owens. For years, rumors of the "Marsh Girl" have haunted Barkley Cove, a quiet town on the North Carolina coast. So in late 1969, when handsome Chase Andrews is found dead, the locals immediately suspect Kya Clark, the so-called Marsh Girl. But Kya is not what they say. Sensitive and intelligent, she has survived for years alone in the marsh that she calls home, finding friends in the gulls and lessons in the sand. Then the time comes when she yearns to be touched and loved. When two young men from town become intrigued by her wild beauty, Kya opens herself to a new life--until the unthinkable happens.

Social Action

Immigration Support

Women's Alliance donated $150 for feminine need products for the Human Rights Initiative personal products support stock and their donation was matched by Social Action. This support will go a long way to ease their chronic problem they have had of not receiving adequate donations of this product. HRI sends their thanks.

Toy Drive

The 6th Annual Toy Drive for Gods Pantry was a success! We donated many adorable stuffed toys, games, dolls, trucks, cars and the list goes on and on. God's Pantry sends many thanks for our support for these families in need.

CUUC Garden

As we say goodbye to 2019, we feel proud of our community garden and all we have accomplished. Our total produce delivered to food banks was 2482 pounds! Our primary mission is to provide healthy, organic produce to the food banks as well as our own gardeners. 2020 marks our 14th year of gardening for the community. Amazing!

We have some new additions to the garden: Our cold frames will be tested this winter. They allow us to start seedlings for transplanting into the plots. This Eagle Scout project opens the lid with a hydraulic lift when the boxes get too warm. We are very excited about this new development which allows our gardeners to try new varieties of vegetables and get an early start for the seasons. We also have some new benches for enjoying our garden thanks to Mike Owens. He was inspired by benches at the bird viewing station at Pedernales State Park. He copied the design and built them to create new seating. Please come and try them out.

International Baccalaureate students from Plano East High School helped us with fall garden clean up chores on a November Saturday morning. Most of the students had never been in a garden before. They were amazed to learn how asparagus grows.

If you would like to learn more about growing your own vegetables and meet some friendly folks, please contact Deb Bliss at harvest@communityuuchurch.org . We have two 4' x 16' plots available for adoption, just waiting for you!

Barron Elementary School

In January please consider helping out at Barron Elementary School just down the street from our church. They would love to have more volunteers to help mentor and tutor students who need help in their studies. You can fill out an application online at Plano ISD (under the Parent-Volunteer tab) and/or contact one of the counselors, Veronica Carreno (Veronica.Carreno@pisd.edu) or Maria Duvall (Maria.Duvall@pisd.edu) to find out how you can help. There are also some Volunteer Sign-up Forms in the foyer of the church that you can submit to the school counselors.

Break Not the Circle: UU Sisterhood in Acadiana

Southwest UU Women will have their 2020 Conference (SWUWCon) in Lafayette, LA, February 28 thru March 1. We'll be joined by keynote speaker Colette Pichon Battle of the Gulf Coast Center for Law & Policy, and Grammy-nominated musicians the Magnolia Sisters! Help celebrate our UU Sisterhood in the heart of Cajun and Creole country!

Registration is now open and early bird registration is $225 until January 12th. Want to know more about fees, workshops, hotel info and more? Contact Vicki Verinder or go to our conference page at <https://www.swuuw.org/conferences/2020> .

SWUW is a non-profit organization that supports women through worship, learning, leadership, community and social justice, addressing women's issues, exploring feminist theology, promoting friendships and celebrating the diversities that make us unique women on our individual spiritual paths. SWUW aligns itself with the spirit of Welcoming Congregations as depicted by the UUA. All who see themselves as women are welcome.

NTUUC Awards and Grants Luncheon is February 1, 2020 at First Unitarian Church, Dallas. Watch for more details.

April 2024 Total Eclipse at UBarU. On Monday April 8, 2024 there will be a total eclipse of the Sun visible along a path that extends from Mexico across Texas. The center of that path will be very near UBarU, which will experience a totality of approximately 4 minutes and 24 seconds.

UBarU has begun to receive inquiries about reservations of the total solar eclipse, so to properly plan for that event and to deal with the likely huge demand for reservations, an Eclipse Planning Track Group was formed.

More information will be coming.

Crafty UUs Fellowship Night

A group is meeting at the Church, Crafty UUs Fellowship Night. We meet in Founders Hall the first and third Tuesday evenings of every month from 6 – 9. This is an outreach activity, open to members and nonmembers alike. Friends are always welcome. Bring your current project, a snack to share and perhaps, a friend for unstructured and chatty fellowship. For more information, please contact Katey Eubanks at katey.communityuu@gmail.com or join us on Facebook@craftyUUs.

Finance Report by Cindy Hadden Treasurer

The November financial summary for our operating accounts is listed below. We just had the Service Auction with a very successful $10K result (though the collection of money didn't really start until December), and we have had a very successful first half of the fiscal year. We are about $30K ahead of our budget, which will only help us get situated very comfortably for the arrival of our minister in February. Some things to note: We received 2 months of rent from the Sai Center ($2.5K above budget). We had budgeted for Liability/Fire insurance, but paid it last month (-$1.9K). The absence of a minister, DRE and Membership coordinator is 'saving' us $7.9K.

Happy New Year: We are looking at a new year, which is looking to be a good year. We have a part time minister starting soon, we are financially in a relatively good place, and pledges are coming in mostly on time. As long as we can keep this up, this will be a happy year indeed.
