

CHILDCARE PROVIDER JOB DESCRIPTION

- The main task is to care for children when parents are tending to other church obligations. Child care workers provide the children in their care with activities that promote physical, emotional, intellectual and social growth. You are responsible for aiding children in exploring interests, developing talents, building self-esteem and learning how to share and properly interact with others. The ability to give each child individual attention and guidance in addition to teaching kids to work in groups is essential. Care givers provide a comfortable, safe and non-threatening environment for children to grow in.

Other tasks:

- Organize and participate in recreational activities, such as games.
- Discipline children and recommend or initiate other measures to control behavior, such as caring for own clothing and picking up toys and books.
- Instruct children in health and personal habits such as eating, resting, and toilet habits.
- Assist in preparing food for children and serve meals and refreshments to children and regulate rest periods.
- Read to children, and teach them simple painting, drawing, handicrafts, and songs.
- Dress children and change diapers.
- Observe and monitor children's play activities.
- Organize and store toys and materials to ensure order in activity areas.
- Sanitize toys and play equipment.
- Support children's emotional and social development, encouraging understanding of others and positive self-concepts.

If interested in this position, please send your resume and references to personnel@communityuuchurch.org. This position pays $16.54 per hour and requires work on Sunday mornings between 9:30 and 12:30 and special evening events as scheduled.