

CHALICA DAY FIVE

Every day during Chalica* we focus on one principle.

Principle Four: The right of conscience and the use of the democratic process within our congregations and in society at large

Our Spirit Play children know this as the Blue Principle. Blue is for Believe in yourself

The suggested chalice lighting for the day is:
*This fire is a reminder of the light within us all;
the yearning for freedom,
the longing for truth,
the flame of intuition,
the torch of conscience.*

We dedicate this service to the remembrance of this Holy Light.

--Gregory David Miller

The story is: Granddaddy's Gift Margaree King Mitchell
<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=SgnXtDeo7dA>

Granddaddy's Turn by Michael S Bandy and Eric Stein
<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ckQ-pcnbyo8>

Fifth Principle: The rainbow principle and the full principle seem to not quite fit each other in this case. The expanded rainbow principle is believe in yourself, your ideals and act on those. This is the responsibility of all who live in a democratic society. This is the responsibility of anyone with a morally guided conscience. We vote with our actions, with our daily words, with our non actions and with what we don't say. This principle calls us to be aware of how our decisions are our responsibility and we must have courage to act one those sometimes.

Suggested dinner/mediation questions:

1. How did you show the blue principle today?
2. What is one way you can stick to your beliefs everyday?
3. Why is important to do the right thing, even when no one is watching?
4. Can you help others fulfill their blue principle?

Happy Chalica!