

CHALICA DAY FOUR

Every day during Chalica* we focus on one principle.

The Fourth Principle: A free and responsible search for truth and meaning

Our Spirit Play children know this as the Yellow Principle. Yellow is for yearn to learn

The suggested chalice lighting for the day is:
We light our flaming chalice

To illuminate the world we seek.

In the search for truth, may we be just;

In the search for justice, may we be loving;

And, in loving, may we find peace.

--Elizabeth M McMaster

The story is:

“The Bee Tree”

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ckQ-pcnbyo8>

Fourth principle: We should not only yearn to learn; it is our responsibility to learn and grow. We are called to search for truth and meaning. We are called to grow and constantly level up on our skills, spiritual practice, and just life in general. We are called to create a this search in equity. All must have the access to this free and responsible search for truth and meaning. This must span socioeconomic boundaries, racial boundaries, ability boundaries, gender boundaries and all other boundaries that have been put into place. We must be responsible in this search to not hurt others or ourselves.

Suggested dinner/meditation questions:

1. What was the most interesting thing you learned today?
2. What makes learning exciting for you?
3. How did you help someone else learn today?
4. What is your definition of truth?
5. This year what skill, subject spiritual truth do you want to dedicate to learning?

Happy Chalica!